On the Acropolis visit the architectural masterpieces of the Golden Age of Athens: the Propylaea, the Temple of Athena Nike, the Erechtheion and finally the famous Parthenon. Your first taste of Athens would not be complete without a visit to the Acropolis Museum, a modern architectural building where, at last, the statues have found their home and admire the wonders and architectural masterpieces of the classical era. Return to your hotel and enjoy the remainder of your day at leisure. Last night at your Athens hotel.

Our next stop is Kalafatis Beach where there is time to relax a little and enjoy a coffee or a refreshment at your own expense before returning to town and capturing the ultimate “photo-op” vista of Mykonos and its neighboring islands. We switch from motor coach to foot, where we explore the island by navigating its quaint and narrow streets with the opportunity to capture idyllic photographs during the early morning of this quiet city. Travel through history as you get more familiar with the labyrinth of the old town while gaining understanding about the small port and churches in town. Near the end of our walk, we will see the famous windmills and find Petros the Pelican, the beloved mascot of Mykonos.
